

Attention FDA

0357 '00 APR -6 P1:31

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

No - You are not required to have a medical exam before you purchase glasses. If I want to purchase a hearing aid that is no one else's business - especially the government

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

Keep the government out of medical problems - If I want to purchase a hearing aid through the mail that's nothing to anyone else. They are just trying to keep the customer from ordering thru the mail. I am more satisfied with my H. his ordered thru the mail then <sup>other ones I have purchased.</sup>

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

NO

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

YES - Do not take take this right from me.
